Don't Give up Love for Lent

The season of Lent is upon us. A season of reflection where we are asked to give up something to replicate the sacrifice of Jesus in the desert for 40 days. It seems people will fast, give up chocolate, eating out, things they like. One year I gave up saying no, to my daughter Emily. I did of course say no to some things but my immediate response to requests could no longer just be no. This changed our relationship as I grew to listen to her in deeper more meaningful ways.

This year I want to suggest to not give up love. In this world we live in, where social media shows us the only things, we love are puppies and babies, and people we disagree with we cannot talk to let alone love. As a result, love is in short supply. You may even think you cannot love the world, or neighbors, the people different from us. The good news is you can learn how, you don't even have to know them.

There are four ways we as a church can show unconditional love today.

1. Welcome strangers like long lost siblings.

Imagine how it would feel to be welcomed into a new space as though the people knew you and cared for you. "How are you? It's great to see you." Simple statements to change the attitude of welcome a stranger.

2. Pray for people you disagree with or are angry with.

I don't mean pray to change their heart. Rather pray for your heart to change toward them.

3. Love people as they are.

For an entire day, every time you think about wanting to fix or change someone, take notice, ask God to help you to reach out to them in love.

4. Invite people to church you wouldn't normally associate with.

Don't think about why you wouldn't associate with them, no economics, not socially, no judgements. Just invite them. This can take away conditions of our love for others and allows for the unconditional love from God.

It is hard to love people, let alone like them. Love is what is needed, unconditional love. This Lent let's make a real difference in the world by not giving up love, or our neighbor, or being the church. Instead let's start loving unconditionally instead of giving up start something new.

Yours in Christ, Pastor Joel

She believed the best is yet to come

A woman was diagnosed with terminal illness and given three months to live. She asked her preacher to come by her house to discuss her funeral. She told him which songs she wanted sung at the service, what scriptures to read, and what dress she wanted to be buried in. She also requested to be buried with her favorite Bible.

As he prepared to leave, she suddenly remembered one more thing. "I have one more request," she said excitedly. "What's that?" the preacher replied. "This is very important," she continued. "I want to be buried with a fork in my right hand."

The preacher looked at her, not knowing quite what to say. "That surprises you?" she asked. "To be honest, I am puzzled," he replied.

The woman explained, "In all my years of attending church fellowships and potluck dinners, I always remember that when the dishes were being cleared, someone would inevitably lean over and say, "Keep your fork."

It was my favorite part, because I knew that meant something better was coming . . . like velvety chocolate cake or deep-dish apple pie. Something wonderful!

So, I want people to see me in that casket with a fork in my hand. When they ask you, 'What's with the fork?'

Then I want you to tell them, "She believed the best is yet to come."

Outreach Opportunities

Pastor Discretionary Fund

In the pews you will find a special offering envelope called Pastor's Discretionary Fund. This is a Church fund made available to the pastor to distribute as the pastor sees fit, typically for emergency financial aid to families and individuals in the community.

These donation envelopes allow the support of those in need without breaking the confidentiality of the people we serve as a community of faith. Please consider making a donation.

Envelopes may be placed in the offering plate or given directly to Pastor Joel.

Bottle and Can Drive - Support our Youth Activities

As a church community we are collecting Bottles and Cans to help support our youth activities. Please leave your empty, clean bottles and cans in the blue barrel in the lift entry way. There will also be a container in the social hall for collection. Thank you for taking part in this drive to help out our youth.

Damien Dinners

A mission of our church, is to prepare a meal each month for the clients at Damien House in Troy. We do this on the 4th Monday of each month.

The Church of the Covenant in Averill Park shares this outreach with us. We are looking for people to prepare these meals monthly when needed.

Please call Helen at 518-663-5268 to be part of this important mission. We are God's hands for this outreach to be accomplished.

St. Jude's Card Collection Mission

At St. Jude's there is a teen run recycled card program for the residents. Card covers are collected and new ones are made and sold. This program teaches the skills of an entrepreneurial skill as well as the opportunity to earn some money for their "work." They use all types of cards from birthday to get well and even thank you cards. They do not accept Hallmark, American Greeting or Disney cards for this program. Cards must not have any writing on the back of the front picture.

Our church's outreach mission is to collect the covers of greeting cards. Please tear off the cover of the cards and bring them to Helen Godfrey so she can send them to St. Jude's.
